Be active with RICDOG

Refrain:

Here we come, here we come Be active right here right now Here we come, here we come Be active right here right now Be active always, be active always Be active always and everywhere Be active always, be active always Be active always, and everywhere

 We have learned how to think hot to act We enter the life young and powerful But to care, Here we come full of questions, With decisions, ready for actions, We have place without divisions Our prize with precision.

Refrain:

 To win a prize that no one's ever won The prize of wisdom- precious diamond. Here we stand together Here we stand together Here we stand For unities, for actions

Here we come full of questions, With decisions, ready for actions, We have place without divisions, Our prize with precision

Refrain:
